Institute are very respectfully and earnestly solicited to attend the examination of all the classes of the Institute and the exercises of the Institute on Friday night.

Quite a number of Clarksville people have helped to swell the crowds in Nashville this week.

The frost on Wednesday morning did more damage than was first thought.

The plank walk between the Tobacco Exchange and the City Cemetry is in need of repairs.

Divine service will be celebrated at Trinity church on to-morrow (Sunday) at 10:30 o'clock, a. m., and at 6 o'clock, p. m.

The Clarksville market has been glutted with strawberries during the past week. We have noticed some very fine varieties.

Rev. W. W. Bainsfield will preach at Bethel, on the Hopkinsville pike, to-morrow (Sunday) morning at 11 o'clock.

The railroads and steamboats have been crowded with passengers this week attending the military drill at Nashville.

Our brick manufacturers have commenced operations. Mr. Bradley and Mr. Buck both are burning kilns.

The great military drill at Nashville closes to-day, and many a man will return home "a wiser, if not a better, man."

Judge Milton Brown died at his home in Jackson last week at an advanced age. He was once prominent as a politician and as a railroad man.

We have a few numbers of the CHRONICLE with the commencement of our serial story, and can supply those who subscribe at once.
Now is your time.

We hear some complaint that frost slightly injured potato slips and cucumber vines that had just come up, on Wednesday morning last.

EVERGREEN LODGE sold last Monday about 25,000 cabbage and potato plants. They were shipped to a number of southern states and a good many orders sent to Arkansas and Texas.

JOHN BRADLEY has his brick machine in operation, and we are glad to learn that it is a success. He says with good hands, &c., he can make thirty thousand per day. This is a great improvement on the old mode.

The Cumberland Presbyterian pulpit will be filled on Sunday morning by Rev. J. M. Halsey of Bowling Green, Ky., and Rev. B. A.
Cockrell, of Owensboro, Ky., is expected to fill it at night.

THE MAY DRILL.

The Nashville drill has proved as great a success as was anticipated.
Infantry companies, batteries and battalions from all parts of the Union have participated in the contests. A representative of the CHRONICLE visited the city Wednesday. When he arrived at 11 a. m., the grand parade had just taken place and the streets were densely packed with a living mass of people. Locomotion was difficult among the great throng and hotels and restaurants were so crowded that it was almost impossible to get accommodations. The numerous visitors embraced people from al-over the State and many of the adjoining States were largely represented.

The drill took place at the Fair Grounds, which is about two and a half miles from the square. The contest began Wednesday afternoon and has continued through Thursday and Friday. The following is the names of the competing infantry companies in the order in which they drilled: Company C, Third regiment Missouri National Guards, Company B, Illinois National Guards, Company A, Missouri National Guards, Lawrence Light Infantry, Detroit City Rifles, Mobile Rifles, Company F, Fourth regiment, Missouri National Guards; Treadway Rifles, Paris Light Infantry, Company H, Illinois National Guards, Company C, Missouri National Guards, Houston Light Guards, Crescent Rifles, Fifth regiment Missouri National Guards, Company B; Company I, Fourth regiment Iowa National Guards, Savannah Cadets, Governors' Guards.

THE CHRONICLE man only saw one company drill, the Bush Zouaves, from St. Louis. So far as he was capable of judging this was very finely executed.

The city was very gaily decorated and in its festoons of evergreens and profusion of bunting presented a very handsome appearance. The prizes are to be awarded to-day.

Death of an Old Servant.

One of those "old time darkeys" so rare in these days and who will soon be known only as belonging to the past, died in Clarksville last Sunday morning. Her name was Matilda Johnson and her death occurred at the residence of Polk G.
Johnson, Esq. Her exact age was not known but it is thought she had passed ninety years. The large portion of her life was spent as a slave of the Johnson family, to whom she was very much attached.
She spent four years in Washington with the family of the Hon. Cave Johnson, while that gentleman was Post Master General. She was the mother for all of his children and was very fond of her. She has been very comfortably provided for by the descendants of her former owner during her old age, and they all attended her funeral.

Teachers Institute.

The Institute for Montgomery county meets at 10 o'clock, Saturday, June 8th, 1883, at Clarksville, in the Howell school building. The following is the program:

1. 10 to 10:15. Opening Exercises by Polk G. Johnson, Esq., of teaching, class exercise, discussion, &c.
2. 10:15 to 11:15. History of the United States, discussing the history of the United States, 11:15 to 12:15. Orthography, method of teaching, class exercise, discussion, &c.
3. 12:15 to 1:15. Writing, method of teaching, class exercise, discussion, &c.
4. 1:15 to 2:15. Miscellaneous business.

Teachers of public schools, and those expecting to teach are expected to attend. Teachers of private schools, school directors and friends of education generally are invited.

J. MILLER,
County Sup't Schools.

Another disastrous cyclone swept over the country to-day. The track this time lay in Illinois and Wisconsin. Much destruction was done to property, a number of lives were lost and many persons injured. Three great cyclones have recently appeared in the United States with about a week's interval between them. All three moved from East to West and each successive storm was farther North than its predecessor.

Tennessee has been fortunately skipped with the exception of a slight haze at Chattanooga.

The Paris Post credits us with some verses concerning Ed. Shaw, the colored sashen of the Chickasaw Bluffs, that have been going the rounds. In some instances we might let such a mistake pass unnoticed but in this case we cannot claim the honor. Those rhymes originated with our namesake of Knoxville; we did not write them.

QUEEN VICTORIA was 64 years old on the 24th. Next month she will have completed the 44th year of her reign, which is exceeded in length by those of only three of her predecessors who have ruled the British throne. She has four sons and five daughters, all of whom are very comfortably provided for. The Queen is very highly esteemed for her good qualities of heart and womanly purity.

She has made as good a sovereign as any other amiable lady might have done who had nothing to do with the government.

Deadwood, Central City, Anchor

City and Golden Gate, all towns in Dakota, suffered severely from an overflow of Deadwood Gulch on which they are situated, the first part of the week. The gulch generally is only a few feet wide but looked as though it had been cut and swelled it to 600 feet and the torrent carried everything before it.

THE Nashville American, since occupying its new building, has been enlarged to a seven column quarto. We know of no paper that presents a neater typographical appearance than the American. It is ably managed and is an ornament to Tennessee journalism.

BRING your Job-work to the CHRONICLE office. Our facilities are better than ever to do good work and give satisfaction.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Ed. C. Campbell attended the drill at Nashville this week.

Mr. Thomas Wallace of Christian county, Ky., was in the city Thursday last.

Dr. Monroe Moody of the Trenton, Ky., neighborhood, attended the tobacco sales on Thursday.

Mr. A. Weinstein, (barber) we understand, has located in Nashville.

Mr. Frank Clifton left the first of the week for San Antonio, Texas, where he expects to locate.

Dick Caldwell and Rudolph Shelton went to Nashville Wednesday night.

Mr. John D. Moore and wife visited Mr. Moore's father in Hampshire county this week.

Will Wright, R. H. Edmonson, G.
Organ, Ed. C. Mumford and a large number of others went to Nashville last Wednesday.

Mrs. S. M. Snow will leave for Arcata Springs, Ky., on Monday next. Judge Rice will accompany her if well enough.

Mr. G. M. Whiteside, proprietor of the new furniture store, went to Chattanooga on a visit to relatives the first of the week.

Mrs. Max Kleeman, Miss Fannie Kleeman and Master Philip Kleeman, of Shelbyville, Illinois, are visiting the family of Mr. Wm.
Kleeman, of this city.

A large number of our citizens left Nashville night on the steamer Rhea for Nashville, to attend the drill on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The steamer Drouillard had a large excursion party aboard on her last trip. They stopped off on her downward trip and surveyed our city, Mr. Scott, the editor of the Kutawa Gazette, one of the party, gave us a pleasant call.

Rev. J. R. Goodpasture and A.
V. Goodpasture, Esq., returned from Nashville on Wednesday evening, where they had been to attend the meeting of the Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly.

Those Panies.

Ladies must go to Evergreen garden and admire Mr. Monroe's panies. As usual everything is beautiful there and some things lovely, especially the strawberries, but the panies are unique; you don't know what the flower is capable of till you see them. Mr. Monroe was unable to get seed which satisfied him on this continent, and imported from the most noted London establishments. And the result is — well you must go there to appreciate it, and go soon as they are now in their prime of loveliness.

Our Washington correspondent describes President Arthur witnessing the street parade on the recent reunion of the Army of the Potomac, as being very elegantly dressed, holding a handsome silk hat in a graceful attitude, and having the small end of a silk handkerchief that reached his neck protruding slightly from his side pocket.

Mr. DUNCAN HARRISON blacked

George Alfred Townsend's (Gath) eye in New York Wednesday, for writing a severe criticism on his sister, Miss Maud Harrison, an actress. We hope while he was pounding he gave the imaginative correspondent one for that whole clothe line, purporting to be an interview with a Southern man about Southern railroads, which he recently published.

Walter S. Evans, of Kentucky, has been appointed Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in place of Green B. Raun, resigned. The position is a very important one and almost equal in dignity to a place in the cabinet.

A correspondent to the Courier-Journal from Jackson, Tenn., says the "strawberry king" resides in that vicinity. He is Mr. J. M.
Samuels, a gentleman originally from Kentucky, but who had for several years lived in St. Louis and Chicago. He has 140 acres in Strawberries and 150 acres in other fruits.

An accident occurred in Atlanta last Friday which resulted in a very sad death Monday. Mrs. Robert H.
Bridley, youngest daughter of the late Senator Ben Hill, jumped from her runaway carriage and received injuries that caused her death on the day mentioned.

The Courier-Journal of Monday last published in full the sermon preached by Rev. Chas. H. Spurgeon in London the day before.
The same issue contained the sermons of Beecher and Talmage on the same day. The sermons of this "noted trinitarian" will in the future form a distinctive feature of Monday's C-J.

Gen. Longstreet said to a World reporter in New York recently:
"The colored people in Georgia are of a very intelligent class, and are both wise and cunning. They maintain an outward semblance of adherence to the republican organization, for the sake of getting a federal office or two, but on election day they vote the democratic ticket.
Take the last election. The colored people in Georgia number 65,000, and the republican vote was 25,000, of which about half were polled by white voters. That shows that at least 50,000 of the Georgia colored citizens have cut loose from the party of freedmen
